

THE NEW ZEALAND INTERNATIONAL WINE SHOW 2007THE CHAMPIONS LIST of GOLD MEDAL WINNERS*Chardonnay*Allan Scott 'The Wallops' Marlborough Chardonnay 2006

Single vineyard with full barrel ferment and malolactic fermentation, this wine expresses power and flavour with an aura of elegance and class. Full-bodied and mealy with citrus and tropical fruit and a gorgeous caress of smoky oak, it expands on the palate with consummate ease.

Bouldevines Dogpoint Road Marlborough Chardonnay 2006

More medium-bodied in style, this radiates luscious fruit, balance and harmony. Creamy oak with just a hint of toast and an underlying mealy richness support the delicious and juicy, fresh peach and fruit salad flavours. Very impressive.

Charles Wiffen Marlborough Chardonnay 2005

Light gold in colour with apricots galore in this juicy fruit driven style that has a nectar-like feel to the slippery texture with underlying oak and spicy lees flavours adding flamboyance. It's long, rich, toasty and utterly decadent. Drinking well right now.

Church Road Reserve Hawkes Bay Chardonnay 2005

A sophisticated savoury style with polished French oak and a mealy, nutty depth. It's creamy, elegant and delicately spicy although subtle to start, it opens up beautifully to reveal an orchard of stonefruit and oaky flavours in a most appealing way. Stylish.

CJ Pask Declaration Chardonnay Hawkes Bay 2006

Full of deliciously ripe stonefruit, spice and savoury oak with a little bready yeastiness and butterscotch on the finish, this is a class act. It's so creamy, ripe and harmonious, it draws you in and seduces you.

Clearview Reserve Hawkes Bay Chardonnay 2006

Curvaceous and buxom with a golden colour, a rich creamy aroma and ripe, grilled peach and toasty oak flavours. It's opulent and full-flavoured with a spicy, mealy richness and underlying nuttiness and an expansive, mouthfilling finish that simply goes on and on.

Evans & Tate Wildberry Springs Margaret River Chardonnay 2005

A single vineyard wine with barrel fermentation in French oak barriques, it's smoky with hints of pineapple on the nose and tasty flavours full of citrus, pineapple and melon with lashings of savoury oak and an orange zest brightness to the long toasty finish. Still quite tight with evolution ahead of it.

Goldwater Marlborough Chardonnay 2006

Light, fresh and fruity with creamy oak, tropical fruit, hints of stonefruit and spice, integration is the key to its success. Lightly smoky with a savoury undercurrent and a long, clean and refreshingly dry finish. Very appealing.

Ingoldby McLaren Vale Chardonnay 2006 - South Australia

Smoky, creamy, harmonious in its silky textured flow, it's powerful and intense with toasty oak, tropical fruit and stonefruit then citrus and pineapple adding brightness to the sweet yet savoury and well integrated finish. It's all about balance and charm.

Kim Crawford SP Dolly Gisborne Chardonnay 2006

From the 'Small Parcels' range, this wine is savoury and spice and all things nice. It's dry, rich and toasty with sweet yet savoury French oak, grilled stonefruits and pineapple and a harmonious flow. Powerful and long.

Lonestone Hawkes Bay Chardonnay 2006

Integration and harmony are the words to describe this flinty, grainy textured, savoury wine. With citrus, pear, hints of nectarine, little influence of oak and a lingering, juicy afterplay, it's a summer style of Chardonnay. Great value too.

Marsden Black Rocks Northland Chardonnay 2006

Rich, ripe, creamy and peachy with harmonious texture and flow, this is crammed with opulent oily oak and decadent, powerful flavours of apricot, oatmeal, spice and cream. Full-bodied and long with a refined sophistication and harmony to the finish where tantalising tropical fruit flavours linger.

Montana 'O' Ormond Gisborne Chardonnay 2004

Smoky aromas and subtle, savoury oak and tropical fruit flavours on a sweet creamy palate with underlying juiciness and richness. It shows integration and silkiness of texture and harmony of fruit and oak with a spicy mealiness that lingers with an intriguing savoury tang.

Oakridge Yarra Valley Chardonnay 2006 - Victoria, Australia

Rich yet lean, subtle and elegant with a flinty element to the taste, the spicy French oak seems rounded and integrated but asserts its spicy, smoky presence on the clean, citrusy, mealy finish where all sorts of tropical fruit comes into play.

Orlando St Hilary Padthaway Chardonnay 2004 - South Australia

Dry and flinty with a slightly salty, lime zest tang and a sweet fruit infusion of apricot, citrus and green melon playing on a nutty, spicy, integrated French oak backbone. Despite being one of the older wines, it's lighter in colour with a tight, youthful veneer and bodes well for long term aging.

Ponder Olive Grove Marlborough Chardonnay 2006

A 'Burgundian' imitator with partial malolactic fermentation and 9 months in new and older French oak, it's lighter in colour and shows its youth in its tight flinty expression but blossoms with citrus and peaches and cream on the long toasty finish.

Saint Clair Pioneer Block 11 Cell Block Marlborough Chardonnay 2006

Spicy, fragrant, floral and bready, it's fruity yet savoury with ripe, rich, toasty oak and a creamy, seamless palate where peach and hints of grapefruit combine with cedar, nougat and a glimmer of caramel crême. A delicious wine that builds in power and the finish is opulent and long.

Seifried Estate Winemakers Collection Barrique Fermented Chardonnay 2006

Deliciously opulent with glamour and style, this radiates class with creamy oak, spice, richness and power. It's all about flavour intensity with juicy stonefruit, citrus, potent oak and a mouthfilling butterscotch finish presented in the most harmonious way.

Squawking Magpie Gimblett Gravels Hawkes Bay Chardonnay 2005

Dry, nutty and sophisticated with toasty oak and a creamy, spicy, yeast lees influence, it's fattens out beautifully on the palate with a stonefruit sweetness and a smoky, savoury richness and hints of pineapple and citrus that add brightness to the finish.

Taylors Estate Clare Valley Chardonnay 2006

Spice and toast and creamy French oak combine with golden tropical fruit in a most lavish and mouthfilling way but be prepared for the power surge and explosion of juiciness that carries the finish a mile. Quality and value.

Te Whare Ra Marlborough Chardonnay 2006

Oily, powerful and rich with toasty aromas and 'peaches and cream' flavours, hints of citrus, an underlying juiciness and a coating of butterscotch caramel that lingers with flawless length. Chardonnay hedonists will love this beauty.

Villa Maria Single Vineyard Waikahu Vineyard Hawkes Bay Chardonnay 2006

A mealy, yeast-driven aroma leads into a full-flavoured palate crammed with peach, citrus, melon and creamy oak with a tight, nutty, smoky underlay. A single vineyard wine from the Maraekakaho sub-region, it's deliciously long with savoury nuances adding intrigue. 14% alc.

Villa Maria Cellar Selection Hawkes Bay Chardonnay 2006

Inviting fruit, spice and smoky aromas and a juicy, flavoursome fruit-laden palate saturated with peach and tropical fruit underpinned by a creamy, mealy, and deliciously integrated savoury, nutty oak backbone that emanates power, flavour, richness and length.

Wolf Blass Gold Label Adelaide Hills Chardonnay 2005 - South Australia

A repeat winner from 2006 with additional complexity from an extra year of age. A fragrant, spiced oak and blossomy nose and a fat, fleshy palate where peach, citrus, pineapple and melon meld beautifully with butter caramel and mealy flavours and opulent French oak. Subtle, powerful, spicy and long.

Sauvignon BlancBlackenbrook Vineyard Nelson Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Daniel and Ursula's Schwarzenbach's passion has resulted in this truly remarkable Nelson sauvignon Blanc. It's spicy and smoky with a tinge of grapefruit zest, capsicum and tomato on a juicy fruit palate of richness and power. There's the slightest hint of sweat with musk and pineapple on a tropical finish with bright acidity and balance all the way through.

Boatshed by Goldwater Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Tantalisingly juicy, spicy and musky with oodles of tropical fruit, a crisp apple freshness, citrus zestiness, freshly cut grass and a pungent coriander leaf and basil herbaceous tang. It's delicately oily and drinking beautifully.

Brightwater Vineyards Nelson Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Tropical fruit aromas and grassy herbaceous flavours that reveal exotic fruits like banana passionfruit and pawpaw. Ripe zesty and powerful with a fine grainy texture and a pungent aftertaste.

Drylands Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Quintessential Marlborough with a punchy, 'leap out of the glass' aroma and bright fruit flavours filled with gooseberry, limes, grass and summer herbs with a crisp grainy texture and a long, tropical fruit finish that simply goes on and on.

Redwood Pass by Vavasour Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Lovely lime, herb, capsicum, dried grass and tropical fruit aromas and loads of juicy fruit flavours in the palate that's crammed with lime, green melon, spice, tropical fruit and a powerfully long, toasty finish. A wine of texture and richness.

Saint Clair Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Light in colour, vibrantly aromatic and juicy in flavour with a purity and freshness to the lively tropical fruit that's tinged with gooseberry, herbs and citrus and layered with banana passionfruit. Tasty and long. Another superb wine from Saint Clair.

Saint Clair Pioneer Block 2 'Swamp Block' Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

A softer, slightly sweeter style with limes, beans, gooseberries and herbs on the nose and myriads of tropical fruit flavours with a touch of melon, lime, greengage plums, passionfruit and a little suggestion of sweat on the pungent, flavoursome, almost toasty finish.

Saint Clair Pioneer Block 3 '43 Degrees' Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Named 43 Degrees because of the south east to north west orientation of the vines, this Single Vineyard savvie is all sweetness and brightness with classic flavours of grass, gooseberry, lime, tropical fruit, spice and zest with power and intensity. It's just delicious.

Saint Clair Pioneer Block 6 'Ohl Block' Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Vibrantly perfumed with tangy flavours spearheaded by racy acidity that lifts the gooseberry pungency and herbaceousness of this powerful wine. Pineapple and passionfruit lingers with green melon and lime on the vivaciously pungent and powerful finish. Outstanding.

Saint Clair Wairau Reserve Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

A subtle wine with a delicate perfume but builds in power and flavour and delicious juiciness with a medley of citrus, passionfruit, tropical guava and mangosteen with Marlborough's classic 'greens' emerging and fill the finish with gooseberry, cut grass and limes. Dry, silky and powerfully long.

Stoneleigh Rapaura Series Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

A myriad of grapefruit, lime, gooseberry and stonefruit on the nose and juicy, fresh flavours of citrus and apples in a intensely focussed palate that garners power and headiness with underlying gooseberry and tobacco and a sweetly pungent finish.

Sugar Loaf Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Gooseberry and nectarine aromas and creamy flavours with a crisp, grainy undercurrent and racy acidity, it's a dry tangy wine that exudes richness and flavour with melons, herbs, citrus and a surge of tropical fruit.

Sugar Loaf Founders Reserve Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Dry and focussed with a fresh, steely purity, tropical guavas tease the nose and gooseberry, limes and tropical fruit fall on a carpet of freshly mown grass. The zesty, citrusy, herbaceous finish is pungent and long.

Villa Maria Gravel Lane Single Vineyard Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

From a single vineyard site in the Southern Wairau Valley, this is a striking expression of savvie with pungent passionfruit and gooseberry aromas and vibrant, sweet fruit flavours with a honeyed texture, richness of fruit, a spicy undercurrent and a long toasty finish.

Whitehaven 'Greg' Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2007

Dedicated to Whitehaven's founder, Greg White, this expressive savvie is from the Rapaura, Brancott and Kekerengu Vineyards, the latter being halfway between Blenheim and Kaikoura. It's smoky and pungent with deliciously tangy vibrant citrus, gooseberry and tropical fruit, a steely undercurrent and a lasting finish.

RieslingCharles Wiffen Marlborough Riesling 2006

A powerful Riesling with a lemon honey aroma and crisp citrus and apple flavours with a steeliness balancing the honeyed richness of the finish. There's a touch of sweetness but the racy acidity makes it seem dry.

Framingham Classic Marlborough Riesling 2006

A full-flavoured Riesling with a honeysuckle and lime blossom aroma and a powerful citrusy flavour with just enough sweetness to balance the juicy apple and lime acidity. It's mouthwatering, tantalising, refreshing and long.

Orlando St Helga Eden Valley Riesling 2004

Light golden coloured, dried hay and lemon biscuit tempt the nose and the lime curd and zest in the lightly oily palate has a blossom allure. Bright and focussed with clean apple acidity and a creamy richness. Beautiful now but made to age.

Whitehaven Marlborough Riesling 2007

Made in a just 'off dry' style, it's delicately floral on the nose and has a crisp flavoured palate with limes and apples and a juicy richness with just a hint of tangelo marmalade on the finish. Beautifully fresh and ready to go.

The Crater Rim Waipara Riesling 2006

With citrus, flower blossoms, spice and honey, this late harvest, medium sweet, 'Germanic' style wine has super ripe Riesling fruit and an exquisite balance of lemon and honey. It's fresh and juicy with tantalising orange and mandarin acidity and a stony undercurrent to keep the sweetness in check.

Forrest Estate "The Doctor's" Riesling 2006

This Riesling is just what 'The Doctor' ordered because of its low, 8.5% alcohol content. It comes together in harmony with high sugar and high acid on a lightly textured palate with green apples, limes and mandarin flavours.

GewurztraminerForrest Estate Marlborough Gewurztraminer 2007

Water pale, youthful, with a delicate florals joining pepper and ginger and other intriguing spices, it's medium sweet, smooth and flawless with incredible length and flow and a delicious taste of lychee, mandarin and honeysuckle.

Kemblefield Hawkes Bay Gewurztraminer 2006

Lychee, rose petal and violet aromas and reasonably dry, spicy, tangy flavours with hints of liquorice, anise, white pepper and ginger. It's spicy, powerful and long yet has an aura of delicacy with an intriguing finish and Turkish Delight complements the package.

Lawson Dry Hills Marlborough Gewurztraminer 2006

Delicately pungent jasmine aromas and heady flavours with a spritzzy lemon zest and grapefruit undercurrent and a lovely orange water nuance radiating freshness to the exotic spice and Turkish Delight finish. Reasonably dry with a seamless flow. Another terrific wine from one of our top producers of this variety.

Seifried Winemakers Collection Nelson Gewurztraminer 2007

Exotically perfumed like a Persian boudoir full of rose petals and essential oil scents, it's delicately coloured and opulently flavoured with spice, flower, pink musk and a touch of orange zest adding brightness to the totally delicious, powerful finish.

Spy Valley Marlborough Gewurztraminer 2007

Delicately musky with floral aromas and a balanced sweetness to the taste, it's zesty and spicy with a varietal pungency. Think violets and orange water with lemon meringue and a touch of honey and rose oil adding lusciousness to the end.

ViognierMorton Estate Private Reserve Viognier 2007

Exotically perfumed with rich, stonefruit flavours, a nectar-like texture and a vibrant and powerful, mouth-awakening finish, it's ripe, rich, spicy and spritzzy with a savoury and nougat undercurrent.

Villa Maria Omahu Gravels Hawkes Bay Viognier 2006

Delicately beckoning aromas of apricot and pear and pure clean flavours of apricots and spice with a perfect level of alcoholic warmth. Light and ethereal in its fragrant nature, it's seductive and enticing with great length and persistence and a rose petal intrigue.

Yalumba Eden Valley Viognier 2006

Young, fresh, spicy and zest with bright citrus aromatics and rich flavours of apricot, spice, musk and all things exotic and nice. It's dry on the finish with just a touch of peach adding a fleshy richness while a mealy savouriness adds a spicy warmth.

Pinot GrisGreystone Waipara Pinot Gris 2007

Pear and melon and a delicate hint of rose petal tease the nose. Just off dry with sweet pear, melon and tropical fruit, there's a strudel spice infusion and the finish is long.

Johanneshof Trocken / Dry Marlborough Pinot Gris 2007

Extravagantly scented with passionfruit, apple and pear and full of pear and spicy apple strudel flavours, it's oily, powerful and long. Trocken is the German word for 'dry', and this wine is almost bone dry but the power, flavour and richness of the fruit add a delicious balancing sweetness.

Johanneshof Medium Marlborough Pinot Gris 2007

Opulently scented and richly flavoured, this sweeter of the two Johanneshof wines is perfectly balanced and focussed. It's vibrant and fruity with passionfruit, honey and a touch of apricot and the lasting baked apple and musky spiced flavour has elegance and power. Delicious, unctuous and a dead ringer for an Alsace wine.

Koura Sharktooth Awatere Valley Marlborough Pinot Gris 2007

Tantalising aromas of passionfruit, apple and pear carry through to the ripe juicy palate where fleshy stonefruit adds to the fruity expression. Deliciously fleshy with a dry, tangy finish and citrus blossom, honeysuckle and rose petal adding a spicy, floral brightness.

Mt Rosa Central Otago Pinot Gris 2006

There's a flicker of yellow gold to the hue of this year-older wine which has honeyed melon aromas and deliciously juicy, fruit salad flavours with cherimoya and apricot, honey, spice and rose musk. Long and powerful, bright and clean with flavour, richness and lingering sweetness.

Spy Valley Marlborough Pinot Gris 2007

Light lemon gold, fragrant and fruity, spicy and even a little savoury with ripe pear and stewed apple infused with a touch of mandarin on a creamy texture with a long finish, perfectly balanced tropical fruit sweetness and additional complexity from yeast lees aging.

Terrace Heights Estate Marlborough Pinot Gris 2007

Fresh, spicy and full of tangy lemon biscuit aromas, the ripe pear, baked apple and citrus fruit expands in the deliciously fruity palate which finishes dry with a touch of ginger and a flourish of strudel spice.

Triplebank Awatere Valley Marlborough Pinot Gris 2007

A striking pinot gris from Marlborough's more southern valley, this radiates pear and honeysuckle aromas and spicy, pear, peach and honeyed melon flavours. It's clean and long with a crisp, dry finish and a fruity aftertaste that has power in its length.

Villa Maria Private Bin East Coast Pinot Gris 2007

Grapes from several 'east coast' vineyard regions have resulted in this lightly spicy off-dry gris with pear drop aromas and juicy apple and pear flavours on a perfectly oily texture. Its subtle beginnings expand to a rich, clean, warm finish with a mouth pleasing lushness and hints of musk. The bargain buy in Pinot Gris this year.

Sweet Wines

Beverford Gold Botrytis Semillon 2006 - Victoria, Australia

Bright, lustrous, light lemon gold with a hint of smoky oak to the rich botrytis and toffee aromas and a mellow oak complexity to the sweet rich flavours. It's like lemon meringue pie with a crème brulee topping and the delicious, clean aftertaste is rich with honeycomb and spice.

d'Arenberg 'The Noble' McLaren Vale Chardonnay Semillon 2006 - South Australia

Deep burnished gold, it's fragrant, floral and citrusy scented with luscious, juicy flavours full of fennel pollen, toffee, apricot, honey and peach. Rich, concentrated and moreish with underlying orange juice acidity keeping the focus bright and clean.

Forrest Estate Botrytised Marlborough Riesling 2006

Clear, bright, 24 carat gold with deliciously inviting aromas of golden spun sugar and pure, focussed, nectar-like flavours. Juicy and clean with a zesty fruit brightness, dried apricot, candied citrus, peach and honey and an orange toffee richness to the racy, long finish. Irresistible.

Kim Crawford Reka SP Noble Marlborough Riesling 2006

All sweetness and finesse, like comb honey on toast with a lime orange marmalade adding an attractive tang. Powerful but not overpowering, just beautifully balanced sweetness and acidity, smooth in its flow with dried apricot and honey cream on the deliciously long finish.

Lawson Dry Hills Late Harvest Marlborough Riesling 2005

Bright yellow gold with honey, botrytis, toffee and beeswax aromas and a rich, viscous and intense flavour with cutting Riesling acidity, flower nectar and rose petals and a long lingering finish crammed with citrus, marmalade and toffee apple.

Matariki Late Harvest Hawkes Bay Riesling 2006

Golden bright with honey and beeswax aromas and thick, viscous, toffee-like flavours with delicious peach, candied pineapple and orange honey flavours that penetrate right through. 50% Botrytis adds exactly the right amount of lusciousness to this gorgeously balanced, sweet tasty wine.

Seifried 'Sweet Agnes' Nelson Riesling Ice Wine 2006

Pale citrine with a lustrous glow, honey and apricot scents tantalise the nose and the bright honeyed flavour tingles with ginger and white pepper. It's clean, light and refreshing with lime sherbet, orange marmalade and a toffee apple brightness to the lingering, luscious finish.

Seifried Nelson Riesling Ice Wine 2006

Very light gold with a gemstone brilliance, honeysuckle and rose petal aromas radiate from this light, fresh sweetie that's full of scintillating racy flavours with juicy tangelo, apricot, limes, honey, brulee custard and caramelised brown sugar. Pungent and lasting.

Waimea Bolitho SV Noble Nelson Chardonnay 2006

Deep gold coloured with 24 carat glints, this wine is thick, sticky, rich and intense with candied orange, apricot and beeswax aromas and deep, rich creamy flavours with candied tropical fruit, judiciously proportioned mellow oak and an everlasting liquid toffee finish.

Sparkling Wines

Champagne Henriot Brut Soverain NV

Class and elegance from the outset. Rich, toasty, yeasty and marmitey with creamy richness and power, a subtle citrusy intrigue adding brightness to the dancing bubbly texture and the finish is crisp and dry.

Champagne Jacquesson Cuvee No. 730 Brut NV

Golden coloured with a fine persistent bead, a tantalising peach bread and cream aroma leads into a fig, date and raisin bread. Rich and toasty with a steely undercurrent to keep it ever fresh. Grand Premier Cru vineyards in Grande Valle de la Marne and Cotes des Blanc. 48% Chardonnay, 32% Pinot Noir and 20% PM.

Champagne Lanson Black Label Champagne Brut NV

Golden coloured with a creamy attack of fine fizzy mousse, a refined bready richness, lifted light florals, underlying sweetness and a delicate poise to its length.

Champagne Lanson Gold Label Brut 1996

From an outstanding vintage year in Champagne, it's rounded and full with baked brioche and citrus zest aromas and a rich creamy texture with a fine attack of bubbles and underlying acidity still keeping the wine amazingly fresh.

Champagne Lanvin & Fils Brut NV

Bright, crisp and steely, like a breath of spring with a toasty nutty richness, it's extremely elegant and long with a finesse to the bubbly texture, an earthy depth and lingering cashew and fig.

Champagne Louis Roederer Brut Premier NV

A very fine Champagne made from predominantly Pinot Noir, it's crisp, fresh and nutty with a citrusy tang, a fine bubbly texture and a creamy richness to the lasting finish. Restrained yet classy.

Champagne Jacquart Brut Mosaïque NV

Oozing freshness and class, it's tingly, bright and nutty with a creamy texture and a long, crisp, extra dry, nutty finish with richness and depth.

Champagne Pol Roger Chardonnay 1998

Rich, broad and yeasty with plenty of bubbles and a marmite richness – it's creamy, powerful and decadent with a hint of peach blossom on the tangy finish. Totally delicious.

Champagne Veuve Clicquot Brut NV

From the lovely head of bubbly mousse when poured, it radiates fresh, biscuity, yeasty aromas and fulfils with its toast and marmite flavours in the powerful and creamy palate with a 'spring in the air' vibrancy, a nutty richness and excellent length.

Rosé

Esk Valley Hawkes Bay Rose 2007

A blend of Merlot and Malbec gives depth to the ruby pink colour. With cherry and spice and a rich, creamy texture, this deliciously juicy Rosé is consistently NZ's best.

Fernwood Gisborne / Hawkes Bay Rosé 2007

Made from a blend of Malbec and Pinotage, hence the deep, clear ruby hue, this is a strikingly rich, savoury 'pink' with a fragrant scent and a dry, spicy flavour with cherry fruit and just a little bit of grip.

Cabernet and Cabernet Predominant

Barossa Valley Estate Ebenezer Cabernet Merlot 2001 - South Australia

Still vivid in colour despite being six years of age, this impressive wine tastes remarkably youthful too. Delicious cassis and cherry fruit, chocolate, hints of mint and velvety tannins combine with smoky oak and bottle aged characters to add further complexity to the powerfully long, savoury finish.

Chapel Hill McLaren Vale Cabernet Sauvignon 2004 - South Australia

Spicy, smoky, tarry, succulent and savoury with concentrated fruit, cigar box, meaty tannins and a suggestion of mint. A powerful, grunter of a wine in every way with richness, structure and length.

Church Road Reserve Hawkes Bay Cabernet Merlot 2005 - Hawkes Bay

A deep, rich, full-bodied red packed with blackcurrants, plums, spice and fragrant smoky oak. There's a savoury, earthy undercurrent and a firm tannin structure with hints of chocolate and fruit sweetness lingering in the mouth for ages. Matured in French oak for 20 months.

Elderton Ashmead Single Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2005 - South Australia

Sourced from the oldest vines on the Barossa Valley estate and matured in French oak for 22 months and then for some time in the bottle before release this beautifully integrated wine allures from the outset. Deep in colour, fragrantly scented and deliciously flavoured with spice, red and black fruits and chocolate oak, the silky tannins add to the seductive attraction. A sumptuous wine that is hard to resist.

Fox Creek Pethick Road McLaren Vale Cabernet Sauvignon Merlot 2006 - South Australia

Rich, ripe and savoury with mocha, red fruits, spicy oak and powerful fine-grained tannins, this exciting young wine is striking already yet will evolve even more with cellaring. Long and juicy with hints of mint and chocolate lingering on the bright, peppery finish.

Jacobs Creek Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 2004 - South Australia

Deep in colour, medium to full-bodied in style, crammed with creamy oak and juicy fruit with smoky oak, peppery spice and grippy tannins the palate fills out with Black Doris plums, hints of violets and a suggestion of musk.

Murray Street Cabernets 2004 - South Australia

A blend of 56% Cabernet Sauvignon from the Barossa Valley and 44% Cabernet Franc from the Adelaide Hills, this rich, juicy, fragrant full-bodied red is jam-packed with ripe red fruits, chocolatey oak, smooth integrated tannins and hints of mint. Matured for just 8 months in French and American oak, it's long, succulent and spicy.

Rosemount Show Reserve Coonawarra Cabernet Sauvignon 2005 - South Australia

With it's trendy new diamond shaped bottle, this wine tastes as attractive as it looks. Smoky and savoury with hints of tobacco and chicory and an underpinning of dried herbs, the succulent fruit, chocolate and oak sweetness balance the savouriness beautifully. Powerful and concentrated with a long, lasting finish.

Sandalford Prendiville Reserve Margaret River Cabernet Sauvignon 2005 - Western Australia

From the oldest vines on the estate and matured in the best French barriques for 24 months this concentrated red smells cedary and Bordeaux-like but the minty palate and the voluptuous blackcurrant and blackberry fruit whisks you right back to Australia. Fine-grained and sophisticated with sweet spices, smoky oak, power and amazing length, this delicious wine is indeed a class act.

Shingleback D Block Reserve McLaren Vale Cabernet Sauvignon 2004 - South Australia

Rich and juicy with ripe plummy fruit and a burst of black currants; chocolate and violets provide an intriguing contrast. There's a dense, earthy undercurrent with hints of dried herbs while spicy oak and velvety tannins complete the picture, but it's not a snapshot, it's a movie and the concentrated finish just keeps on going.

St John's Road Barossa Valley The Dog Walker Greenock Cabernet Sauvignon 2006 - South Australia

Lovely and focussed with delicious blackcurrant and cherry fruit, spicy French oak and hints of liquorice chocolate, this outstanding red commands attention. Smooth, delicious, juicy and lasting with a sweet smoky overlay.

Taltarni Pyrenees Cabernet Sauvignon 2004 - Victoria, Australia

Peppery with noticeable tannins but there's a lovely juiciness to the finish with violets and redcurrant and hints of mint and a purity to the cabernet sauvignon fruit. Still tight and young with plenty to offer as it develops. Classy.

Thorn-Clarke Shotfire Barossa Quartage 2005 - South Australia

A blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Malbec, Petit Verdot, Cabernet Franc and Merlot this vividly coloured red is smoky and fragrant with layers of delicious flavour. Juicy red and black fruits combine with smoky savoury oak, hints of liquorice, dried herbs and spice wrapped in a bold cloak of succulent tannins. A wine with a huge pedigree of show success.

Merlot & Merlot Predominant blendsChurch Road Reserve Merlot Cabernet Sauvignon 2004 - Hawkes Bay

A classy, smooth, silky textured red with a smoky cedar aroma and a robust flavour of blackcurrant, plum, cigar box, chocolate, leather and dried herbs. Concentrated, harmonious and long with sweetness on the finish.

Clearview Old Olive Block Merlot Cabernet Sauvignon 2005 - Hawkes Bay

A blend of 44% Merlot, 28% Cabernet Sauvignon, 23% Cabernet Franc and 5% Malbec with 18 months in French and American oak, this fragrant and concentrated blend has a lovely balance of fruit, oak and tannins with wild berries, blackcurrant, plum, chocolate and spice. Harmonious and integrated with a savoury depth.

Esk Valley Reserve Merlot Malbec Cabernet Sauvignon 2005 - Hawkes Bay

Deep, dark and cedary with concentrated aromas and rich, rounded flavours of savoury oak, opulent red and black fruits, dried herbs and leather. Fine silky tannins provide harmony to the flow and the fleshy finish is voluptuous and spicy. One of New Zealand's most respected Merlot dominant wines.

Kominos Winemaker's Reserve Merlot 2005 -Queensland

Last year's Trophy winner in the Merlot class and now with gold again, this Granite Belt wine is no one trick wonder. Deep and rich, juicy plum and raisin fruit, liquorice, spice, hints of chocolate box and a harmony of French oak and fine-textured tannins.

Shakespeare Cliff Merlot 2005 - Coromandel Peninsula

From a beautifully situated east coast vineyard overlooking Cook's Beach and Shakespeare Cliff, it's deep in colour and smoky in character with cherries, blackcurrants and fruit cake spices balancing the French oak and cigar box savouriness. Juicy, concentrated, fleshy and long.

Taylor's Estate Clare Valley Merlot 2006 - South Australia

Juicy with sweet oak and powerful tannins, a touch of chicory and concentrated red and black fruit, this chocolatey wine has a big finish but emanates amazing Bordeaux-like complexities on the lingering finish. Brilliant value.

Shiraz / Syrah

All of these gold medal winning Shiraz and Syrah wines have deep rich red to purple black colours. They are opaque and dense in appearance.

Brokenwood Beechworth Shiraz Viognier 2005 - Victoria

Juicy, fragrant and spicy with a fleshy overlay to the tight grained texture, there's an exotic allure to the spices with cherry, bitter chocolate, sweet oak, nutmeg and pepper and the bright toasty finish is lifted and long.

Grant Burge Filsell Shiraz 2005 - South Australia

Radiating fragrance and flavour with seductive chocolatey oak and spice. It's sumptuous and mouthfilling with chocolate, cherry, a hint of mint, spice, beautifully integrated savoury oak and fine grained tannins. Classic 'old vine' Barossa Valley Shiraz.

Gemtree McLaren Vale Obsidian Shiraz 2004 - South Australia

Fragrantly aromatic with cedar, vanilla, spice, violets and wild berries carrying through to the opulent palate where earth and liquorice notes add to the remarkable allure. Full-bodied and mouthfilling with tight-grained tannins just starting to unfold and a peppery finish that is deliciously long. Irresistible drinking.

Gemtree McLaren Vale Uncut Shiraz 2006 - South Australia

Fragrant sweet oak, violet and spice aromas and rich, powerful, succulent oak, ripe cherry and blackberry flavours with chocolate, spice, earth, dried herbs, pepper and liquorice. Deep and concentrated with fine-grained tannins and a long creamy finish.

Henry's Drive Padthaway Shiraz 2005 - South Australia

Peppery aroma and bright spicy flavours with opulently creamy oak, juicy red and black fruit and a chocolatey finish. Massive, meaty and powerful, succulent and long with fruit brightness to the lingering spicy aftertaste.

Jacob's Creek Reserve Shiraz 2004 - South Australia

Juicy from the outset with spicy aromas and dark chocolatey flavours combing deliciously with red cherry and blackberry fruit and creamy oak with velvety tannins and a spicy, lifted finish. A ripe, tasty, medium-bodied style.

Krondorf K11 Barossa Valley Shiraz Viognier 2005 - South Australia

Surprisingly more medium-bodied than many of the massive gold medal Shirazes, the addition of viognier has added harmony and flow. It's fragrant and fruity with a savoury depth and hints of chocolate raisins and spice.

Marlargo Fingers Crossed Red 2006 - South Australia

A regional blend of Shiraz and 13% Petit Verdot, this super ripe, concentrated, full-bodied wine is fleshy and rich with fine tannins, fruit cake spices, pepper and hints of tobacco. As the striking label says, "surprising and exceptional".

Manara Rock Barossa Shiraz 2005 - South Australia

Juicy, fruity medium-bodied Shiraz with fine light tannins, dark juicy fruit, raspberry, chocolate and liquorice with just a touch of jaffa adding brightness and lift. Amazing value.

Passage Rock Reserve Waiheke Island Syrah 2006 - New Zealand

Cool climate characters add elegance to this block buster from the 'Island of Wine'. Opulently spicy with savoury oak, nutmeg, luscious purple fruit, liquorice and black pepper heat, it is rich, sumptuous and long.

Petaluma Shiraz 2005 - South Australia

From the higher Adelaide Hills, east of the city, this appealing fragrant Shiraz is enhanced by 7% Viognier in the blend, this powerful dry red is rich in colour with a seamless delivery of mocha-like oak, red fruits, fruit cake spice, pepper and a long, dry tingly finish.

Peter Lehmann Futures Shiraz 2005 - South Australia

Smelling of pepper and spice, this is a big, tight wine with powerful tannins, sweet oak and juicy blackberry fruits. Oak makes a statement on the finish of this impressive package.

Pirathon Barossa Shiraz 2005 - South Australia

Made by Kalleske from a number of Barossa sites, this old vine Shiraz is all class and finesse. Beautifully fine tannins, sweet toasted oak, purple and black fruits, chocolate, nutmeg and black pepper spice - it's multi-layered and complex with texture and power.

Rolling Shiraz 2005 - New South Wales

From the high rolling slopes of the Central Ranges, this radiates cool climate charm of pepper and exotic spices with succulent raspberry and redcurrant fruits and a brightness to the savoury, integrated, dark oak finish. Smooth in delivery and long in flavour.
